THIS WEEK.

If you are run down take a run down to Haleiwa and see how quick your exhausted strength will get new life. A game of tennis or a turn at the golf links will do a world of good to the man who is tired from attending to business cares. The meals at the Haleiwa are the best in the Territory and the lanai dining room with all of the fascinating pleasures of an al fresco setting make a meal there particularly delightful. The automobilists find a drive there a very pleasant change from the usual run around the park. It is short and pleasant.

ART THEATER.

Believing in the old adage—"Enough is as good as a feast," Messrs. Bailey and Lawson, have for the present "cut out" the vaudeville from their program and have returned to "straight" moving picture shows. Their feature film for the balance of this week (Friday and Saturday) is entitled "The Blue Legend." This being a Pathe film and in colors, makes a very "swell" display. The plot hinges on the murder of a peasant's wife for her purse, the money in which she is counting on the highway, where she is cruelly strangled by footpads. From this point on the theme is pathetic and the pictures unusually pleasing and attractive, the coloring in them augmenting the charm already exerted.

The husband loses his mind as a result of melancholia, and, being a musician finds solace in his violin, roaming about the country and playing the old familiar airs his wife loved so well. In this delusion his help meet appears to him whenever he plays his violin, but instantly he ceases the music and turns to embrace her, she disappears. The country side scenes through which he wanders are beautiful indeed, being unusually real and vivid.

The Art has recently undergone quite a transformation, though interior decorations, painting etc., which greatly adds to the pleasure and comfort of the patrons of the Art—crowded houses are the rule here you know—"nuff said"—come early.

REDUCED FRENCH DUTIES.

Conference in Progress on the New Tariff Act.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—Conferences now in progress, taken in connection with the recent return from Paris of the French Ambassador, indicate early negotiations regarding the method of applying the new tariff as to French imports.

Preliminary to the real issues must be the disposition of the question whether a concession of reduced duties by France upon a limited number of American articles, while retaining the maximum duties on all others, would relieve France from the charge of "undue" discrimination and enable the Treasury Department to allow all French imports the minimum rates.

The weight of official opinion is strongly in favor of the allowance of the French claim to the reduced duties in consideration of a partial list of remissions on their side. Should the President conclude that under the second section of the Payne-Aldrich act nothing less than the concession of the entire French minimum schedules will warrant him in extending a like privilege to France, then a tariff war between the two countries, in the opinion of some of the tariff experts, becomes possible.

Should the President accept the departmental view, then the negotiations would be fairly launched, with the purpose on the part of the French Ambassador of obtaining the full minimum American tariff rates in exchange for the smallest possible list of American goods to be placed on the French minimum schedules.

AMERICANS MAY DEVELOP.

GREAT RUSSIAN RAILWAY
BERLIN, November 23.—The Lokal Anzeiger learns from an authoritative source that the Russian Government intends to close a contract with an American syndicate to develop the Transiberian Railroad, which will be double-tracked throughout its length. The project involves hundreds of mil-ions, and, according to the paper, representatives of the syndicate are now in Europe awaiting the Emperor's return to St. Petersburg from Livadia.

WOOD WANTS
NEW ARMY LAW

FAVORS SYSTEM FOR PROMOTION OF OFFICERS TO HIGH GRADE IN THE ARMY.

WASHINGTON, November 22.—Organization of Army officers to a radical degree was recommended to the War Department today by General Leonard Wood, in command of the Department of the East. He wants an elimination law enacted so that officers above the grade of captain will attain grades on an average of at least ten years younger than at present.

"Our present system," said General Wood, "results generally in the best years of a man's life being spent in a subordinate position."

He recommended the re-establishment of the Army canteen.

WAS TOO SWEET
FOR HIS JOB

SALESMAN WHO CALLED CHIEF'S WIFE "HONEY" HAS NO RELIEF.

CHICAGO, (Ill.), November 22.—Calling his employer's wife "honey, dear," women employees "honey" and customers "girlie" was sufficient cause for the dismissal of Ralph Alexander and abrogated his right to sue for unearned wages, even though it was understood he was to be employed for a certain period. This is the substance of the opinion in the Appellate Court today.

Ralph Alexander brought suit for and recovered $210.50 in the Municipal Court against Jack Potts, who conducts a wholesale millinery business. Reversing this judgment, the Court says: "That the plaintiff's conduct was unseemly and tacitly was subversive of discipline among the other employees and detrimental and hurtful to the defendant's business."

NO CRANBERRY TRADE ABROAD.

Consuls Say Foreigners Turn Up Their Noses at Berry.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—Cranberries so far have never caused a diplomatic imbroglio, but the Department of Commerce and Labor sets forth today the reports of its Consuls General in England, France and Germany, the tenor of which is that the inhabitants of these countries turn up their noses at it and decline to be converted to its use.

John L. Griffiths, Consul General at London, declares that there is practically no demand for cranberries outside of London, and this demand comes almost entirely from the American colony there. The same statement practically is made by Frank H. Mason, United States Consul General at Paris. In addition, Mr. Mason says in his report the French regard the serving of cranberry sauce with turkey or other fowl or game "as a mild form of barbarism."

The necessity for finding a foreign market for the berries is evidenced by reports to the department that this year's crop promises to be practically twice as great as that of last year.
